In 2007, Brett Davidoff joined Rose Commercial Real Estate (RCRE) as a Sales Associate with a focus on all aspects of the office, retail, industrial and investment markets. Acquiring new commercial listings, searching properties for investors, managing landlord/tenant negotiations and negotiating clients' sales/leasing needs fall within his realm of responsibilities. Today, Brett is a Senior Vice President with the firm.

Prior to joining RCRE, Brett was a national account executive with Centimark Corporation in Trooper, Pennsylvania, where he developed and managed accounts with Fortune 1000 companies for commercial and industrial roofing contracts. He successfully developed national accounts exceeding $2,000,000.00 in revenue and established accounts with a variety of vertical markets including office/flex, hospitality and retail. Brett also was an account executive with Commerce Insurance Services in Mount Laurel, New Jersey, establishing and managing accounts for personal lines of property and casualty insurance.

Brett Davidoff is a graduate of Muhlenberg College in Allentown, Pennsylvania, receiving a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications (2004). Born and raised in Cherry Hill, New Jersey, Brett moved to Center City Philadelphia after college where he resided for 15 years before relocating to Upper Dublin, Pennsylvania with his wife, son and family dog. Together, they are active in the community, most recently supporting the ASPCA and For Pete's Sake Cancer Respite Foundation.
